

1999

1999

Memorandum of Understanding

The University of Saskatchewan is pleased to establish a new and innovative course in the field of Non-Violent Conflict Resolution Studies within the discipline of Educational Psychology. The program is designed to provide students with an interdisciplinary approach to conflict resolution studies.

The City of Regina will provide the facilities and space where this course will be held. The course will be held in the City of Regina, Saskatchewan, Canada. The course will be held in the City of Regina, Saskatchewan, Canada.

The University of Saskatchewan is pleased to establish a new and innovative course in the field of Non-Violent Conflict Resolution Studies within the discipline of Educational Psychology.

The University of Regina is pleased to establish a new and innovative course in the field of Non-Violent Conflict Resolution Studies within the discipline of Educational Psychology.

This memorandum is signed by the University of Saskatchewan on July 1999, and the City of Regina on July 1999.

University of Saskatchewan

1999

City of Regina

1999